

Level 3 Criminology WJEC

Applied Diploma, equivalent to 1 A Level

New at Fortis Sixth form for 2021 is the Level 3 Criminology Applied Diploma, offered to you by the Social Sciences Department. This course is a blend of Sociology, Psychology and law focused on understanding criminal behaviour, criminal investigations and consequences.

If you are interested in.... why crime happens? How are crime scenes investigated? How are criminal actions prosecuted? What are the punishments of criminal activities? Then look no further!

What will I be studying and how will I be assessed?

This course has 4 units, you will complete 2 in the first year and 2 in the second year. You will sit a mixture of examinations and internal controlled assessments.

Unit 1: Changing Awareness of Crime- Controlled Assessment

Unit 2: Criminological theories- Exam

Unit 3: Crime Scene to court room- Controlled assessment

Unit 4: Crime and Punishment- Exam

Unlike A level options this qualification is modular and allows you to gradually build up to your overall qualification through a mixture of internal and external assessment, allowing you greater control over how successful you will be.

Associated careers

Police officer, Detective, Social Worker, Youth worker, Journalist, Family worker, Probation officer, Public relations officer, Teacher and Solicitor.

What other options work well alongside level 3 Criminology?

- Sociology
- Psychology
- Law

If you would like information, the specification and other resources are available via:

https://www.wjec.co.uk/qualifications/criminology-level-3/?sub_nav_level=course-materials#tab_resources

Why choose Fortis sixth form?

- Taught by specialists- Miss Winwood who has a First Class Criminology degree and Ms Edwards who is a law specialist.
- Committed, dedicated and enthusiastic staff
- High expectations
- Support throughout.

Any questions email:
R Winwood, V Edwards
or H Hall.